SUNNYBROOK FARM
BETHLEHEM, N. Y.

Certain of the following records, particularly the names and dates, were taken from the family cemetery on the property.

The house was built in 1808, the original owner being Frederick Britt, who died in 1811. The actual builders of the house were Frederick and John Luke, apparently sons-in-law of Frederick Britt.

The brick portion is of Holland brick and the stone a local lime stone in random ashlar.

Since 1926 the farm has been owned by the Hon. Parker Corning, representative in Congress, who in 1927 built the additions.
